Arenal Volcano

After breakfast we depart San Jose and head for Arenal Volcano. We make a couple of stops along the way, the first being at the Doka Estate, where you will have a chance to learn the whole process of how your morning cup of coffee goes from a coffee plant to your mug. From here we proceed to the La Paz Waterfall Gardens, where we can see and learn about all the different types of flora and fauna that Costa Rica is so well known for, all in an incredibly lovely setting. Lunch will be at La Paz. After lunch we continue to the Fortuna area to check into our hotel.
